

Josh Hiscock

Affectionately known by his students as "J-Hizzy," Josh Hiscock has a love for everything pop culture – a common, relatable theme that is woven into the work he does when speaking with students about the transformational power of leadership and social change. He is a lover of music, movies, and all things FUN!

Josh has worked in higher education since 2003. He is currently the Senior Director of Alumni Benefits & Services in the Office of Alumni Relations at The George Washington University. Josh is also pursuing a doctorate in College Student Personnel Administration at the University of Maryland - College Park where he previously worked and taught undergraduate courses including Leadership in Groups and Organizations and Leadership in the Workplace.

A first-generation college student who believes in the power of education, Josh holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in American Studies from The George Washington University and a Master of Arts degree in Counseling & Personnel Services from the University of Maryland – College Park.

Josh has a substantial background within the Kiwanis Family, as well. As a Key Club member, he served as both Lieutenant Governor (two terms) and Governor of the New England District. He is a past recipient of the Robert F. Lucas Outstanding Lieutenant Governor Award, the Distinguished District Governor Award, and the Robert Thal Scholarship. Josh is a George F. Hixon Fellow within the Kiwanis International Foundation. He is also a proud member of the Kiwanis Club of Ellicott City (MD) in the Capital District where he serves on the Key Club Adult Committee as a zone administrator.
